THE STORY OF OUR WINE LIST

The Rustic Canyon wine list began as a love letter to California. Santa Monica native Josh Loeb founded the restaurant in 2006 after hosting monthly dinners at his family's home nestled in the Rustic Canyon neighborhood. Some of the most memorable moments and conversations revolved around wine—Josh would open special bottles, craft thoughtful pairings, and friends would discover something new. The first restaurant list featured boutique wineries whose stories he loved to share: beautiful wines from all over the Golden State (with a heavy dose of Pinot Noir) and old-world favorites from classic regions in Italy and France.

Just a week after the opening, I started as a server at Rustic Canyon and this list sparked my passion for wine. Eventually, after months of tasting together, I convinced Josh to let me take the reins. I became the Rustic Canyon Sommelier in 2011, and then went on to craft the wine lists for all our sisters restaurants over the years.

Today our wine list features small producers from all over the globe who practice organic, Biodynamic and regenerative farming, with a deep love for California. We believe this list has something for everyone, and our team of dedicated servers and sommelier are always here to help you select the perfect pairing.

Cheers!

Kathryn Coker
